THE BULLETIN.

TELEGRAPHIC.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 27.—Gen. William Truesdale, formerly governor of Tennessee, died at his residence in Gallatin to-day.

PHILADELPHIA, March 27.—Most of the Japanese embassy started for Reading to-day to inspect the coal mines and iron furnaces.

UTICA, N. Y., March 27.—The trial of Mrs. Josephine McCarty, for the murder of Perry H. Hall, in a street car in this city, has been put over to the 29th of April.

Louisville, Ky., March 27.—A meeting of liberal republicans was held at the Court house to-night, and appointed delegates to the Cincinnati convention on the first of May.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 27.—In the superior court H. Wright was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for participation in the Ku-Klux riot at Charlestown on April of last year.

CHICAGO, March 27.—The Custom house will, on May 1st, be removed to the Farwell building, in Arcade court, where rooms have been secured for an indefinite time, at a rental of $25,000.

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—A young man named Frank Muller, a law student resident at Zanesville, fell from the fourth story of a building last night, in an intoxicated condition, and was instantly killed.

TRENTON, N. J., March 27.—In the Senate to-day, a bill to authorize the construction of a railroad from New York to Philadelphia, known as the Parker Broad Gauge railroad, which had passed the House, was taken up and ordered to its third reading.

Rome, March 27.—The Prince and Princess of Wales visited Cardinal Antonelli yesterday.

The Pope gave a long audience to the Prince and Princess of Wales. He desired their royal highnesses to convey to the queen of England his thanks for her constant evidences of sympathy. He praised the people of Great Britain for their piety.

LOUISVILLE, March 27.—A libel suit for $10,000 was some time since brought against the "Courier-Journal" company by George W. Hull, proprietor of an employment office, for publishing it as a swindling den. A change of venue was had to Oldham county. Hull swearing that he could not obtain justice here on account of the great influence of the "Courier-Journal" in this community. The case has been on trial at Legrange, and was concluded this p.m., the jury giving a verdict for the defendant after being out only five minutes.

CINCINNATI, March 27.—The tobacco cutters of principal western cities, including Detroit, St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Dayton, Cleveland, Toledo and Chicago, met at the Burnet House in convention to-day. The proceedings were had with closed doors. The convention claims to represent the entire cutting trade of these cities. There were forty-two delegates, and they claim to represent in the aggregate eight million dollars of annual government tax. They passed a resolution unanimously endorsing the action of the committee on ways and means in favor of a tax of 24 cents per pound on fine cut and plug, and 16 cents per pound on smoking tobacco.

In addition to our sewing machine department, we do machine embroidery, dress and cloak making, stamping for either braiding or embroidery, and all done with block stamps.
